a. Game Night/Sock Hop- Thanks for the Saskowski, DeGrave, and Hager families for making Screen-Free week so much fun for everyone, as well as all of your hard wok!

6. New Business

a. Car Party

- caterer is secured
- all licenses are good to go
- tickets are in and 56 have been sold
- still need lots of set up help (all day Thursday and Friday, early into the evening on Saturday)

- chair covers were ordered (400) now we have our own.
- donation requests have been sent out, and items are trickling in still

b. Board Members secured for 2019-2020

- Paula and Alisande Rapps - Presidents
- David and Margo Hone - Vice Presidents
- Nick Emerson - Treasurer
- Kimber Cartwright - Secretary

c. Budget meeting will be held in May

- Will get with Mrs. Francque on setting a time/date for that.

Parents Club Suggestions

- 1 family from each grade as a representative on the committees such as Car Party
- Talk to Fr. about increasing tuition if families don't volunteer their time at Parents Club Functions?
- Mentorship program to help families pass the torch from previous years participants
- Utilizing confirmation students to help out for different events as they need service hours

Scholarships

- Two scholarships will be given - a member of the church and a former student
- The committee was established.

Rosary Garden

- Potential on getting the ground prepped, the tree is gone, the stone is purchased (donated)
- Marie Boone donated $3000 and Bob Thoene was hoping that some of that money could be utilized for this project. More information will be provided as the project progresses.

Luck of the Draw

- Looking for ideas to make it less stagnant
- Easy program to manage any help would be appreciated (very rewarding)
- Split the profits between the school and the church (easy money between $6000-$10,000)

Next meeting is scheduled for Monday, April 8, 2019, at 7:00 p.m.

7. Closing Prayer/Adjournment
