

St. Malachy Youth Ministry Scholarship

The Youth Ministry of St. Malachy Church offers two $500 college scholarships to be awarded at the graduation Mass.

The purpose of this scholarship is to recognize two graduating seniors who have shown exemplary qualities in St. Malachy Parish and the community.

Requirements: The recipients must

- be a member of St. Malachy Parish.
- be a graduating senior.
- have applied to an institution of higher learning.
- be a witness to their Christian faith.
- be actively involved in St. Malachy's faith community.

Special Consideration will be given to applicants who meet the above criteria and are involved in Christian activities beyond the St. Malachy's faith community.

Any graduating senior who wishes to apply for this scholarship must complete the application which includes a short essay and furnish two references. Completed applications are due May 1, 2023.

The scholarship recipient will be selected by a committee consisting of the following:

- Member of the Youth Ministry Program
- Parish Clergy
- Teacher from Geneseo High School who is also a member of the St. Malachy Parish Community.

The decision of the above committee will be final. Reception of monies is contingent upon acceptance to an institution of higher learning. The committee has the right to determine that a scholarship will not be awarded.
