SEVEN SISTERS APOSTOLATE

Seven Sisters is a group of women who pray for our pastor.

We are a chapter of Seven Sisters, Apostolate started by Janette Howe in 2011, in St. Paul, Minnesota. There are over 1,500 praying groups nation wide.

Each member offers a holy hour one day a week before the Blessed Sacrament, with a one-year commitment.

St. Malachy has had an active group since 2019.

Our 7 Sisters group for Fr. Gifford is looking for someone to share a holy hour 2 Tuesday's a month. If you are interested please contact Jolene Thompson (Anchoress) 309-269-8944 or jghummingbird@protonmail.com

We are also planning to start up a Seven Sisters group for Fr. Haake. An Anchoress is needed as well as women willing to pray a holy hour. Please contact Jolene Thompson

Imaginary Walk to Ireland Starting June 21st

Did you know that it is 3,722 miles to get to Ireland? Father Gifford is going to Ireland, (leading a group) so the Wellness Committee thought it might be fun to see if we could walk the number of miles it would take to get to Ireland. Along the way there will be some education on the places in Ireland they will go on their trip. If you like other forms of exercise you can convert that into steps. There is no need for a pedometer.

For example:

Step Conversion

Activity Steps per Minute (Approx.)

Walking 80-100

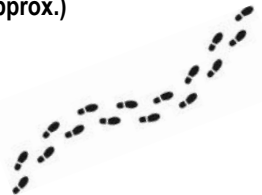

Running 120-180

Cycling 60-100

Gardening 131

Mowing the lawn 120

Circuit training 199

When you enter the walk your name will be put in for a weekly prize drawing.

A Letter from the Pastor

Dear St. Malachy Parishioners,

Let us begin by continuing to get to know our new Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV. Just as we read gradually through Pope Francis's last homily, let us do the same with Pope Leo's very first homily as pope, given to the College of Cardinals, in the Sistine Chapel, the day after his election:

"I begin with a word in English, and the rest is in Italian, but I want to repeat the words of the responsorial psalm: I will sing a new song to the Lord because he has done marvels. And indeed, not just with me, but with all of us, my brother cardinals, as we celebrate this morning, I invite you to recognize the marvels that the Lord has done, the blessings that the Lord continues to pour out upon all of us. Through the ministry of Peter, you have called me to carry that cross and to be blessed with that mission, and I know I can rely on each and every one of you to walk with me as we continue as a church, as a community of friends of Jesus, as believers, to announce the Good News, to announce the Gospel.

"You are the Christ, the Son of the living God" (Mt 16:16). In these words, Peter, asked by the Master, together with the other disciples, about his faith in him, expressed the patrimony that the Church, through the apostolic succession, has preserved, deepened and handed on for two thousand years. Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God: the one Saviour, who alone reveals the face of the Father. In him, God, in order to make himself close and accessible to men and women, revealed himself to us in the trusting eyes of a child, in the lively mind of a young person and in the mature features of a man (cf. Gaudium et Spes, 22), finally appearing to his disciples after the resurrection with his glorious body. He thus showed us a model of human holiness that we can all imitate, together with the promise of an eternal destiny that transcends all our limits and abilities. Peter, in his response, understands both of these things: the gift of God and the path to follow in order to allow himself to be changed by that gift. They are two inseparable aspects of salvation entrusted to the Church to be proclaimed for the good of the human race. Indeed, they are entrusted to us, who were chosen by him before we were formed in our mothers' wombs (cf. Jer 1:5), reborn in the waters of Baptism and, surpassing our limitations and with no merit of our own, brought here and sent forth from here, so that the Gospel might be proclaimed to every creature (cf. Mk 16:15)."

Let us consider, in fact let us wonder at, the gift and responsibility entrusted to us, namely that of knowing Jesus Christ. Today and every day, may we seek to know Him more closely and help make Him more widely known that He may be greatly loved. "Now the Son of Man has been glorified and God has been glorified in Him" (John 13:31b).

MEMORIAL DAY: Let us remember to honor the memory of all who have laid down their lives in the service of our freedom. Even as we join Pope Leo in hoping and praying for an end to all war, our hearts turn in deep gratitude and respect for those who have paid the ultimate price. May the Lord grant them eternal rest and may their memory be greatly cherished. Happy Memorial Day to all.

CORPUS CHRISTI: Mark your calendars for the Solemnity of Corpus Christi on Sunday, June 22. We will continue the customs of last year. On Saturday, June 21, the 5 PM Mass will be an Explanatory Mass. There will be a short outdoor Eucharistic Procession at the end of the 8:15 Mass. Finally, Outdoor Adoration in the Mahoney Shelter will begin with the conclusion of the 10:30 Mass and will conclude with Evening Prayer and Benediction at 4 PM. Stay tuned for more information.

NEW CLEANING ARRANGEMENT: You may notice in this bulletin a job posting for Custodial Staff. We have outsourced our janitorial needs to a cleaning company.
