A Letter from the Pastor

Dear St. Malachy Parishioners,

As we celebrate the Feast of Saints Peter and Paul, let us now conclude our gradual read through Pope Leo XIV's very first homily as pope, given to the College of Cardinals, in the Sistine Chapel, the day after his election:

"It is essential that we too repeat, with Peter: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God". It is essential to do this, first of all, in our personal relationship with the Lord, in our commitment to a daily journey of conversion. Then, to do so as a Church, experiencing together our fidelity to the Lord and bringing the Good News to all. I say this first of all to myself, as the Successor of Peter, as I begin my mission as Bishop of Rome and, according to the well-known expression of Saint Ignatius of Antioch, am called to preside in charity over the universal Church. Saint Ignatius, who was led in chains to this city, the place of his impending sacrifice, wrote to the Christians there: "Then I will truly be a disciple of Jesus Christ, when the world no longer sees my body". Ignatius was speaking about being devoured by wild beasts in the arena — and so it happened — but his words apply more generally to an indispensable commitment for all those in the Church who exercise a ministry of authority. It is to move aside so that Christ may remain, to make oneself small so that he may be known and glorified, to spend oneself to the utmost so that all may have the opportunity to know and love him. May God grant me this grace, today and always, through the loving intercession of Mary, Mother of the Church."

Wow. What a beautiful and inspiring example our Holy Father has set for us, by his commitment to become "small," to "move aside so that Christ may remain." This first homily blew me away and it made me immediately know I wanted to share it with the whole parish. However, that was over seven weeks ago! Since then, there have been many more of his homilies and speeches I have wanted to share. He has shown himself as a pope whose words have great weight, wisdom and beauty. I will probably continue to share some of his words, but I would encourage you to do some reading of your own. Remember, the best way to get to know a pope is by spending more time listening to him than listening to what others say about him. May he continue to inspire us all to "spend (ourselves) to the utmost so that all may have the opportunity to know and love him (Jesus Christ)."

FINAL THOUGHTS FOR JUNE: As we conclude this Month of the Sacred Heart, we have likely noticed that many in our culture give this month a different designation, namely "Pride Month." This may have sparked some questions: What is the Church's response to this? What is God's plan? How can I respond lovingly to those who disagree? And so many more. These are very good questions and they are only a few. I want to recommend that a great contemporary voice to help us begin to see the unity of truth and love in the Church's vision for our sexuality is Kim Zember, who is the founder of an organization called "Boldly Beloved." She speaks with compassion, empathy, clarity and conviction of the freedom she has found in living this vision within an intimate personal relationship with Jesus and she does so with the credibility of her own experience. Both on Facebook and in the Weekly Update, I recently shared a video in which she answers some commonly asked questions. There are many more videos online that you can search out, in which she shares her testimony, clarifies church teaching and discusses her desire. She describes that desire (on the website of Boldly Beloved): "I am passionate about seeing the Church be a safe place for people to come and be real about where they are at in their lives and be met with such a compassionate love that they feel like they are "home."" You can watch her videos online or read her book, Restless Heart: My Struggle with Life & Sexuality. Regarding the book, it should be noted that its content should be considered adult, as she is very honest about her experience in a manner that will be upsetting for some and can offer others the consolation of being understood.

WELCOMING FATHER HAAKE: Our new parochial vicar, Fr. Chris Haake, will be joining us in just a few days. As I mentioned last week, you can meet and greet him at the Dedication Anniversary breakfast on July 2 or the Coffee and Donuts on July 13, hosted by the Welcome Committee.

DEDICATION ANNIVERSARY: This Wednesday, we will celebrate the 35th Anniversary of the Dedication of Saint Malachy Church. The establishment of our current church building was the result of the hard work and investment of time, talent and treasure of so many faithful members of our parish family, both past and present. The occasion of the blessing and dedication of our parish home is an occasion worth remembering and celebrating. We will do so at our 8 AM Mass, followed by breakfast in the Parish Hall, thanks to a team of parishioners organized by Rita Nelson. I hope you can join us.

TOTUS TUUS: The highlight of the summer begins next weekend, when our team of young adult missionaries will arrive to host Totus Tuus for our children and youth. This is a moment of renewal for the whole parish. Many parishioners are generously supporting our program in a variety of ways. I am grateful to everyone who has contributed in any way, especially to Tara DeWolfe and Shannon Carroll, for the coordination of this great event. Don't forget to join us for the potluck on Wednesday night!

In Christ through Mary,
Fr. Daniel P. Gifford

Guitars • Amps • Accessories
Sales • Consignment • Lessons • Repairs & Setup

The world would be a better place if everyone played guitar.

Learning something new ....everyday.
