A Letter from the Pastor

Dear St. Malachy Parishioners,

"Let all the earth cry out to God with joy."

Friends, this weekend we have much reason to cry out to God with joy and gratitude. As I write this, over thirty of us are coming off of a bit of a spiritual high, after the Steubenville Youth Conference in Joliet. Thank you to everyone who supported our trip in any way, through your prayers, monetary donations or other gifts. Please pray that we may continue to allow ourselves, as the theme of the conference reminded us, to be CONSUMED with God's Love and Truth and not with the things of this world.

This past week, we have also celebrated the 35th anniversary of the dedication of the current Saint Malachy Church. May the Lord continue to bless this parish and may we seek only to be instruments in His hands, building on the firm foundation that is Jesus Christ.

We have just celebrated our nation's Independence Day. We should not take the freedoms that we enjoy in our nation for granted, but remember those of every generation who have fought, served and led to both establish and preserve the foundations on which our nation is built. Most importantly, we must remain vigilant about praying for our nation, its leaders and all of its citizens. As we consider all of those citizens, we remember everyone from the poorest of the poor to the most honored in the world's eyes. With that thought, one citizen comes to mind who has been greatly honored this year in the sight of both God and mankind: Pope Leo XIV.

Since this was our first Fourth of July with an American pope, let us consider these words from the first address he made to a specifically American audience:

"In this Jubilee Year of Hope, Christ, who is our hope, indeed calls all of us to come together, that we might be that true living example: the light of hope in the world today. So I would like to invite all of you to take a moment, to open up your own hearts to God, to God's love, to that peace which only the Lord can give us. To feel how deeply beautiful, how strong, how meaningful the love of God is in our lives. And to recognise that while we do nothing to earn God's love, God in his own generosity continues to pour out his love upon us. And as he gives us his love, he only asks us to be generous and to share what he has given us with others... May the Lord's love and peace come upon each and every one of you, upon your families, and may God bless all of you, so that you might always be beacons of hope, a sign of hope and peace throughout our world" (from the VIDEO MESSAGE OF THE HOLY FATHER LEO XIV TO THE YOUNG PEOPLE OF CHICAGO AND THE WHOLE WORLD on 14 June 2025).

In this past week, we have also welcomed another new spiritual father and shepherd, our new parochial vicar, Fr. Chris Haake! This weekend, we get to hear him preach. Next weekend, we will have more opportunities to get to know him, both through the bulletin and through the Coffee and Donuts on Sunday, hosted by the Welcome Committee. Remember that this coming week will be the beginning of our new daily Mass schedule, including 8:00 Mass on Fridays!

Finally, this weekend, we welcome Angel, Lily, Max and Clare to present Totus Tuus for our children and youth. As I have stated before, although the program is for the children and teens, it is a moment of renewal for the whole parish in the midst of the summer. Thanks to all who have prayed, donated or volunteered. And a very special thank you to Tara DeWolfe and Shannon Carroll, for coordinating this year's program! I hope many of you can join us at the potluck on Wednesday!

In Christ through Mary,
