A Letter from the Pastor

Dear St. Malachy Parishioners,

"How desperately our world is thirsting for the hope that only God can provide!" Bishop Daniel E. Thomas reflected on this in the statement from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops for Respect Life Month, which we quoted last week. Let us thank God that we can encounter the font of Mercy, where this thirst is satisfied, in the Holy Eucharist.

As I ponder the gift of this grace, I am also thankful for the recent addition of our new stained glass windows, which point us to this mystery, by depicting Psalm 42: "As the deer longs for the running waters, so my soul longs for You, O God." The thirst in our hearts leads us to the altar, just as the stream in the windows leads off toward the altar. Now that they have finally arrived, I wanted to offer this brief reflection as a word of gratitude to God and to all of our parishioners who have made this possible. THANK YOU to the over 180 families who donated toward them and or everyone who offered prayers or support of any kind. Also, thank you to Daprato Rigali Studios for partnering with us to bring these windows to us.

Providentially, since the installation ended up happening during my vacation, my first day having the chance to see them in person, to pray and offer Mass in the church with them installed, was the Feast of Saint Francis. As you may know, Francis had a great love for animals and all of creation, as its beauty pointed him toward the Creator. This is reflected in these windows, as the deer drawn toward the stream are an image for us of the thirst in our hearts for God. And yet, the thirst in our hearts reflects something even greater, as it points toward the thirst in the Heart of God for our love. He longs to be with us and so He made us long to be with Him. Then, He satisfies our thirst by pouring Himself out in love for us, upon the cross. Thus, we are drawn to the Holy Eucharist, where we are able to drink deep of the Divine Mercy that He has poured out for us. Finally, in the union of love that results, we are poured out with Him to satisfy the needs of our brothers and sisters. Recently, I heard a lyric from the Christian artist Brogan Gaskill, in his song "The Living Well," which summarizes this nicely: "Pour into me, so I can pour myself out."

May these windows stand as a reminder to all of us of the desire deep within our hearts, which nothing in this world can satisfy. And may this reminder inspire us to seek to grow in prayer and virtue. "If anyone loves righteousness, [Wisdom's] labors are virtues; for she teaches temperance and prudence, justice, and courage" (Wisdom 8:7).

LITURGICAL MINISTERS RETREAT AND TRAINING DAY: We are planning a morning of training, prayer and recollection for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Lectors, Commentators, and Ushers on November 8. We will begin at 8 AM and finish at Noon. If you are involved in one or more of these ministries or interested in becoming involved, please mark your calendars, as this will be for both new and veteran ministers. More information will be coming soon.

In Christ through Mary,

Fr. Daniel P. Gifford

Office of the Bishop

October 2025

Dear friends in Christ,

Each October we celebrate the World Mission Month. We do this to prompt our reflection on the central mission of the Church: sharing Christ and the Good News to the ends of the earth. I therefore write you in the name of the missionaries who are proclaiming the Gospel around the world.

This year, under the theme chosen by the late Pope Francis, "Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples," we are invited to appreciate more the meaning of hope in the Christian life. St. Paul reminds us, "Hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us." (Romans 5:5)

Christian hope is the fruit of divine love - alive in us and active through us! That is why our missionary efforts, our sacrifices, and above all, our proclamation of Christ crucified and risen are powerful acts of hope, especially for communities suffering from poverty, violence or religious persecution.

By our baptism we are invited to be "Missionaries of Hope Among the Peoples." Let us join our new Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, and all missionaries in showing our care for and commitment to proclaiming the Gospel all across the globe.

Peace and Prayers,

+ Louis Tylka

+ Most Reverend Louis Tylka
Bishop of Peoria

Following Up: The 2025 Annual Diocesan Appeal is now underway in our parish. Thank you to all who have already pledged to the appeal. Your gift supports ministries, like the Genesis Marriage retreat, that helps form marriages which are the bedrock for the Domestic Church. No gift is too small, and our parish is trying to reach 100% participation. If you have not given yet, please consider filling out a pledge card today and mail it to the Diocese or drop it in the collection basket. Addition pledge cards are in the narthex/pews. Every dollar raised over our goal will be returned to our parish to help us for future years.
