A Note From the Pastor

Dear St. Malachy Parishioners,

"Rejoice in hope, endure in affliction, persevere in prayer." (Romans 12:12). These words from our second reading for our Parish Feast Day this weekend serve as a fitting exhortation for us. In fact, I can imagine Saint Malachy calling out to us, as with one voice with Saint Paul, urging us to do just that as we thank God for the gift of our parish. This includes gratitude for the blessings of years past, asking for grace to live in the present moment and looking forward with hope to the future.

The notion of gratitude for God's blessings on our parish through the years was very evident last week. As we held the dispersal of many and varied items from the estate of our Fr. Michael Pakula, both through silent auction and free will offering giveaways, it made for a special moment. Parishioners shared happy memories of their beloved former pastor of 25 years and many left with something to remember him by. The spirit of gratitude definitely marked the occasion.

And yet, it was also another instance of seeing the good work the Lord is doing in our parish in the present moment. That estate dispersal was meant to raise funds to be able to make a generous donation to the Geneseo-Atkinson Food Pantry in his name. I am happy to report that thanks to all of you, we are able to make a $1,967.26 donation in Father Pakula's name to help feed the hungry in our area. But, this isn't all. Meanwhile, just across the parish hall, at the same time, the Knights of Columbus hosted a pancake breakfast, which was also able to raise over $1,900 to support unborn children in their mothers, through giving to Pregnancy Resources and Women's Choice Center, again thanks to all of you. And yet, I still feel there is more to mention. Last month, you all (both church and school) have also generously stepped forward to support the Pennies for Life campaign, the diaper and wipe collection by the Confirmation Prep classes, the winter coat collection organized by the Social Justice Committee and Parents Club Lasagna Fundraiser to support our school. Wow. Thank you all.

We have many reasons to rejoice. And yet, we rejoice in hope - hope of many more good things to come. This is just the beginning. The Lord is calling us to keep our eyes fixed on Him as we strive to shine His Light into the world. In this Year of Missionary Discipleship, the Eucharistic Revival continues, because the Lord has given Himself to us as our Bread of Life. And so, may He truly bring us back to new and abundant life, which sends us out to make Him more widely known. "They set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them... Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread" (Luke 24:33,35).

THANK YOU, BUT NO THANK YOU: As we move into the holiday season, it is a time of much generosity. In the coming months, I will be faced with many offers of sweet treats, cakes, breads, etc. I am overwhelmed by the generosity that you all show. I am very reluctant to do this, but I need to ask you all to please consider not bringing me these sweet treats this year. Some of you have noticed that I have lost weight over the past year (which is difficult to keep off) and you probably know that my health has had its ups and downs over the past year. When people have asked how I am doing, I often answer that I am "stable." The implication here is that my health is not "back to normal," but I am well enough to attend to my daily duties with little to no difficulty. Without going into unnecessary detail, it will be in my best interest for me to not slip back into old habits. Additionally, I will still receive plenty from events, family gatherings, and those who do not see this note :). So, please know of my gratitude for your generosity in many ways. But, this year, I will be very grateful to not receive sweet edible gifts. God bless you all.

In Christ through Mary,

Fr. Daniel P. Gifford
